VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN
LET'S STOP IT
AT THE START

Respect Competition, Primary school category

Storyboard Title: True Respect by Coen

Frame 1:

Description: Mrs Smith gives the class homework. "Tonight I want you to think about the meaning of "RESPECT". We will discuss this tomorrow. Tom wrote his assignment down to remind him later.

Frame 2:

Description: At lunchtime, he goes to play down-ball with his friends. A few girls walk past. His friend, Bruce teased a girl about her hair. He made her feel terrible and she burst into tears.

Frame 3:

Description: Later that day, Mr Lee came into class. Some of Tom's classmates chatted noisily and ignored their teacher. Tom felt annoyed and so did Mr Lee.

Frame 4:

Description: After school, his sister played with his guitar without asking. Tom didn't like that, so he told her to ask before using his things.

Frame 5:

Description: At night, when Tom went to bed, he thought about his day. He wasn't very happy with what he saw that day. Maybe if people were more considerate about their actions, there would be fewer bad feelings in this world.

Frame 6:

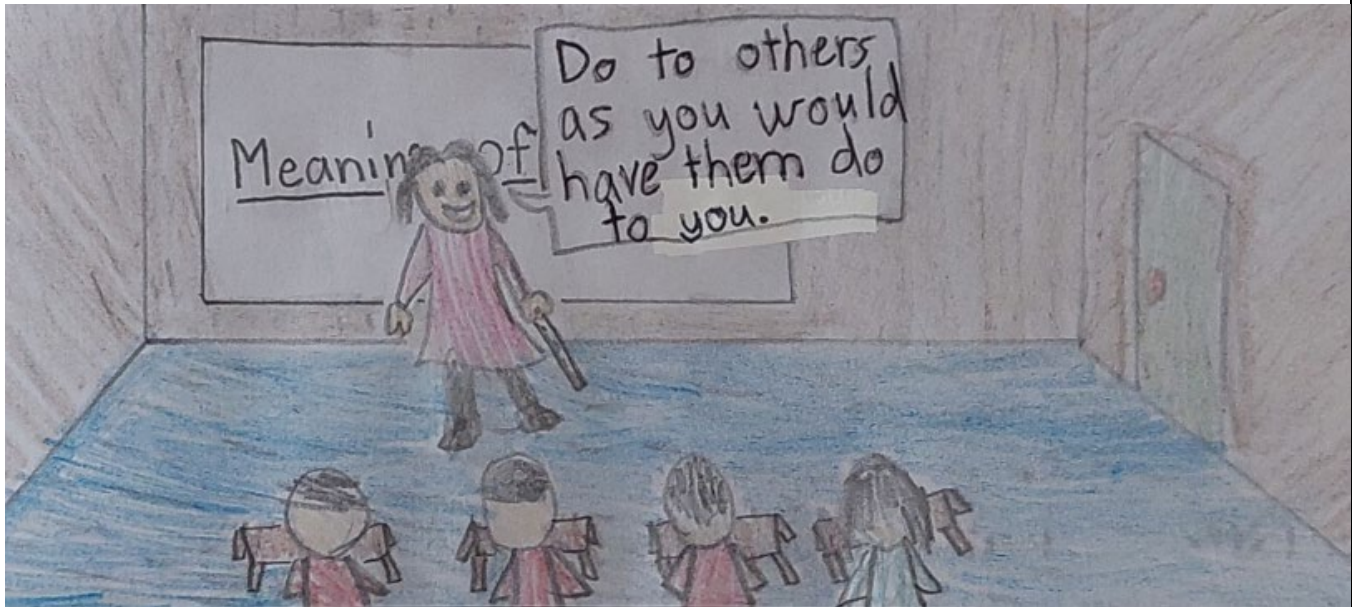

Description: That's it!! Respect means being considerate to others. It means to think before we act and how our actions will affect others.

Frame 7:

Description: The next day, Mrs Smith asks each student what they thought about the meaning of "RESPECT". She is pleased with all their responses, and Tom's response got a special mention.

Frame 8:

Description: She said true respect means "Do to others as you would have them do to you."
