VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN
LET'S STOP IT
AT THE START

Respect Competition, Secondary school category

Storyboard Title: Respect at the AFL by Fleur

Frame 1:

Description: Addison runs onto the oval; she is ready for the game. She remembered to bring her mouthguard, clean her footy boots and tie back her hair. It is her first season in the AFL. She is very excited and eager to play.

Frame 2:

Description: Addison notices the players are already warming up. She walks up to them and overhears the captain, Maeve, stating that she is not good enough to play in the Semi Finals. The other girls whisper and agree. Her heart sinks.

Frame 3:

Description: Addison joins the others, she drags herself along behind them, feeling left out, unmotivated and nervous. They all move into their positions as the game starts.

Frame 4:

Description: Coach Carter is beginning to notice that Addison isn't playing at her best and seems upset. The siren goes off at the end of the first quarter. As the team makes their way to the benches.

Frame 5:

Description: Coach Carter indicates for Addison to come up to him. He asks her what's wrong and she tells him that the team has been doubting that she is a good player.

Frame 6:

Description: Coach Carter brings the team together. He starts a discussion about what they could do better, starting with showing respect for each other by always encouraging one another and appreciating each other. The siren goes off for the start of the second quarter.

Frame 7:

Description: The captain of the team, Maeve, approaches Addison. Maeve apologises on behalf of the team, tells her to do her best and to keep going.

Frame 8:

Description: Addison felt appreciated and respected. Everyone moves into their positions and the umpire blows his whistle. By the end of the game Addison had kicked two goals, her team was proud but she was prouder.
