Storyboard Title: Respect everyone no matter what by Himathri

Frame 1:

Description: A little girl wanted to help carry chairs to another classroom so she asked the teacher if she can help but some boys started laughing.

Frame 2:

Description: Some boys said that girls aren't strong so they can't carry chairs.

Frame 3:

Description: All the kids went out for lunch. A boy who was another race asked to play with the boys.

Frame 4:

Description: The two boys told the other boy 'No' just because he looked different.

Frame 5:

Description: The boys saw another boy in a wheelchair. The boy dropped his books and needed help to pick it up. So he called for help.

Frame 6:

Description: The boys said no just because the other boy was disabled.

Frame 7:

Description: Later, the boys saw all the kids from before. The boy who was a different race was helping the boy in a wheelchair. And the girl was very strong and held more chairs than the boys. Everyone looked so happy and the boys felt guilty and sad. So the boys decided to apologise and the boys respected everyone!

Frame 8:

8.

No matter what race, gender or disability , we must all respect each other!

Description: Everyone became best friends and respected each other.
